

Sustainability core principles

Chocolats Halba - sustainability to the core sustainable purchasing

1. We prefer suppliers who produce particularly ecologically and/or socially. At comparable services, we prefer companies manufacturing in Switzerland.
2. We purchase cocoa beans directly & fairly and are committed to support sustainable cocoa farming.
3. We source our main raw and packaging materials based on independent standards and/or internal social-ethical and ecological procurement guidelines.

resources and climate

4. We produce carbon-neutral and with minimal use of resources.

employees

5. We are a reliable employer offering attractive working conditions. We are committed to the education and training of our employees. And we foster an atmosphere of trust and mutual respect.
6. Our employees are aware of our commitment to sustainability.

market power and innovation

7. We add value for our customers by supporting them with sustainable product solutions and services.

integrated communication

8. We promote sustainable consumption through a transparent, credible and effective communication and lead a cooperative dialogue with authorities and stakeholders.

processes and tools

9. We define measurable objectives very cost-consciously and risk-based and implement these objectives consistently.
10. We are committed to fair competition and refuse any kind of corruption and bribery.
